The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 15-17 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) as being anticipated by Krechel et al.

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) as being anticipated by Krechel et al in view of Sakai et al. Sakai et al teach an outlet check valve to prevent back flow into the tank when the main valve is open. It would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to have used such a check valve in the valve of Krechel et al.

Serial Number: 09/445945 -3-

Art Unit: 3753

Claims 19 and 21-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103 as being unpatentable over Krechel et al. The different features recited in these claims are generally known or obvious design variations, and are considered obvious over Krechel et al.
